The power of one

Create a serene, clean environment featuring Saba Surface in horizontal and vertical applications. In this open-plan design, the versatility of Saba Surface comes to the fore, with an integrated splashback for a seamless look.

For surface looks that are white now

Saba Surface can be fabricated to any shape for total freedom of expression and design. The island bench in this kitchen features 100 mm front edges with large vertical panels at one end.

Bathroom bliss

Make the most of your inner sanctum with the savvy simplicity of Saba Surface. A seamless solid slab makes cleaning a breeze in this bathroom as it avoids areas where mould and bacteria can grow; Ideal for wet area applications.

When vanity is a virtue

The deep warm tones of Asian Night set a sophisticated scene when combined with Saba Surface in Pebble Grey, to evoke simple natural tranquility.

My island home

Protect your family with an expansive surface worktop that is durable, non-porous and prevents bacteria build up. Ideal for busy families who want all the hygiene and wear protection without compromising on design.

Sleek, hard-wearing design for busy families

Saba Surface is featured here as a long floating benchtop highlighted by bold red shadowline detail. Clean & sparkling, yet strong, it's a hard-wearing solution that is up to task for even the most active family.

Colour selection

Indulge yourself with Saba Surfaces latest collection featuring small and large scale crystal and stone designs. Whites are prevalent in all forms, balanced by mottled taupes and greys to suit any modern decor.
